Rules, Policies, and Disclaimers

☑ Please read all rules, policies, and disclaimers before proceeding.

☑ I understand that this board is for technology-related state employees to help each other solve common problems and address State issues.

☑ I understand that the Forum is for California State employees only. Non-state employees, including contractors, are prohibited from using this Forum.

☑ I understand that sensitive state information, especially information that could compromise the security of State systems should not be discussed in these forums and recognize that any information that is provided is public record.   If you are not sure about whether information is subject to the Public Records Act, please visit the California Law Website.

☑ I understand that considering the real-time nature of this bulletin board, it is impossible for Forum moderators to review messages or confirm the validity of information posted. Forum moderators will do their best to identify and maintain the integrity of the Forum's information.

☑ I understand that Forum administrators and moderators have the ability to remove objectionable messages and will make every effort to do so, within a reasonable time frame, if they determine that removal is necessary. This is a manual process, however, so please realize that the Forum may not be able to remove or edit particular messages immediately.

☑ I understand that the Forum will not be used to post any material which is knowingly false and/or defamatory, inaccurate, abusive, vulgar, hateful, harassing, obscene, profane, sexually oriented, threatening, invasive of a person's privacy, or otherwise violative of any law. I agree not to post any copyrighted material unless the copyright is owned by me or by this Forum.

☑ I understand that Forum moderators and administrators reserve the right to reveal my identity (or whatever information the Forum knows about me) in the event c a complaint or legal action arising from any message posted by me.

☑ I understand that advertisements, chain letters, pyramid schemes, and solicitations are inappropriate on the Forum.

☑ I understand that excessive/non-constructive complaining is not allowed.
